

The Male Breast Cancer Coalition

Patricia Singer
Short Bio
July 30th, 2021

Patricia A. Singer is a Breast Cancer Patient Advocate and a New York State Licensed Massage Therapist. She is a graduate of the Swedish Institute of Massage Therapy in New York City and has received extensive training in Swedish Massage, Medical Massage, Trigger Point Therapy and Breast Cancer Massage. Patricia has served the community with her expertise in full body massage, as well as, therapeutic chair massage. In addition Patricia's past work experience with the multi-handicapped population has taught her American Sign Language skills which will also aid in communicating with the hearing impaired public seeking this form of therapy. As a Breast Cancer Patient Advocate, Patricia has worked with the Male Breast Cancer Coalition working health fairs, community events, Lobbying Congress, attending rallies, fundraising and as an exhibitor/advocate at the San Antonio Breast Cancer Symposium.